

General Law of Attraction Affirmations by Sagar Sonker to change your life by 360 degrees

Affirmations are positive and powerful comforting (often, pacifying) statements that one makes to the self in order to empower oneself to feel better. Affirmations not only make one feel good in the moment, but also help one in bridging beliefs from incorrect ones to correct ones.

As I myself listen to my own recordings of these Affirmations and learn them by-heart, I notice that at least one Affirmation comes true at least once a day.

Affirmations written in Italics in this list are inspired by some popular statements that were randomly found on the Internet.

Tips

- Don't make affirmations when not in a good mood. The law of attraction cannot make you happy if you're not happy. The law of attraction, however, does make you happier, if you're already happy.
- These affirmations are for YOU, not for that annoying boss, that surly shopkeeper, or that ridiculously behaved mother-in-law. You got to change first.
